

Leonard Wheeler Founder and President

Leonard Wheeler has been a change agent for athletes, high-power executives, and major corporations for the last 16 years. His competitive spirit, power to persuade, and infectious personality have taken him all over the world. From serving on the boards of prominent national organizations to addressing various groups in London, Barcelona, Seville and even the survivors of the Columbine tragedy, Leonard is highly sought after to speak, train, coach and lead. He also starred in the movie Radio, the TV show One Tree Hill, and has been featured on BET and the Word Network for his powerful message. Leonard's gift gives people hope and inspires the masses to reach their full potential in every aspect of their lives.

Leonard is President of TRiLUCENT Global, Inc. He is a Regional Director for the NFL, an NFL Transitions Coach, an Ambassador for the NFL, a national speaker for the NFL's "Fuel Up To Play 60", and serves on the NFLPA Finance Committee. He holds a degree in Business Administration and another in Communications. Leonard is certified by ICF (International Coaching Federation), Coachville, Robert Hartman Institute in Axiology, "Who Moved My Cheese Change Essentials" "Managing Millennials" and in the "The Human Element."

Before evolving into the accomplished speaker he is today, Leonard attended Troy University and played eight years in the NFL for the Cincinnati Bengals, Minnesota Vikings, and the Carolina Panthers after being selected in the third round of the 1992 NFL Draft. He was elected to the Lees McRae Football Hall of Fame in 2011 and his high school Hall of Fame in 2014, where he also had his number 23 jersey retired.
